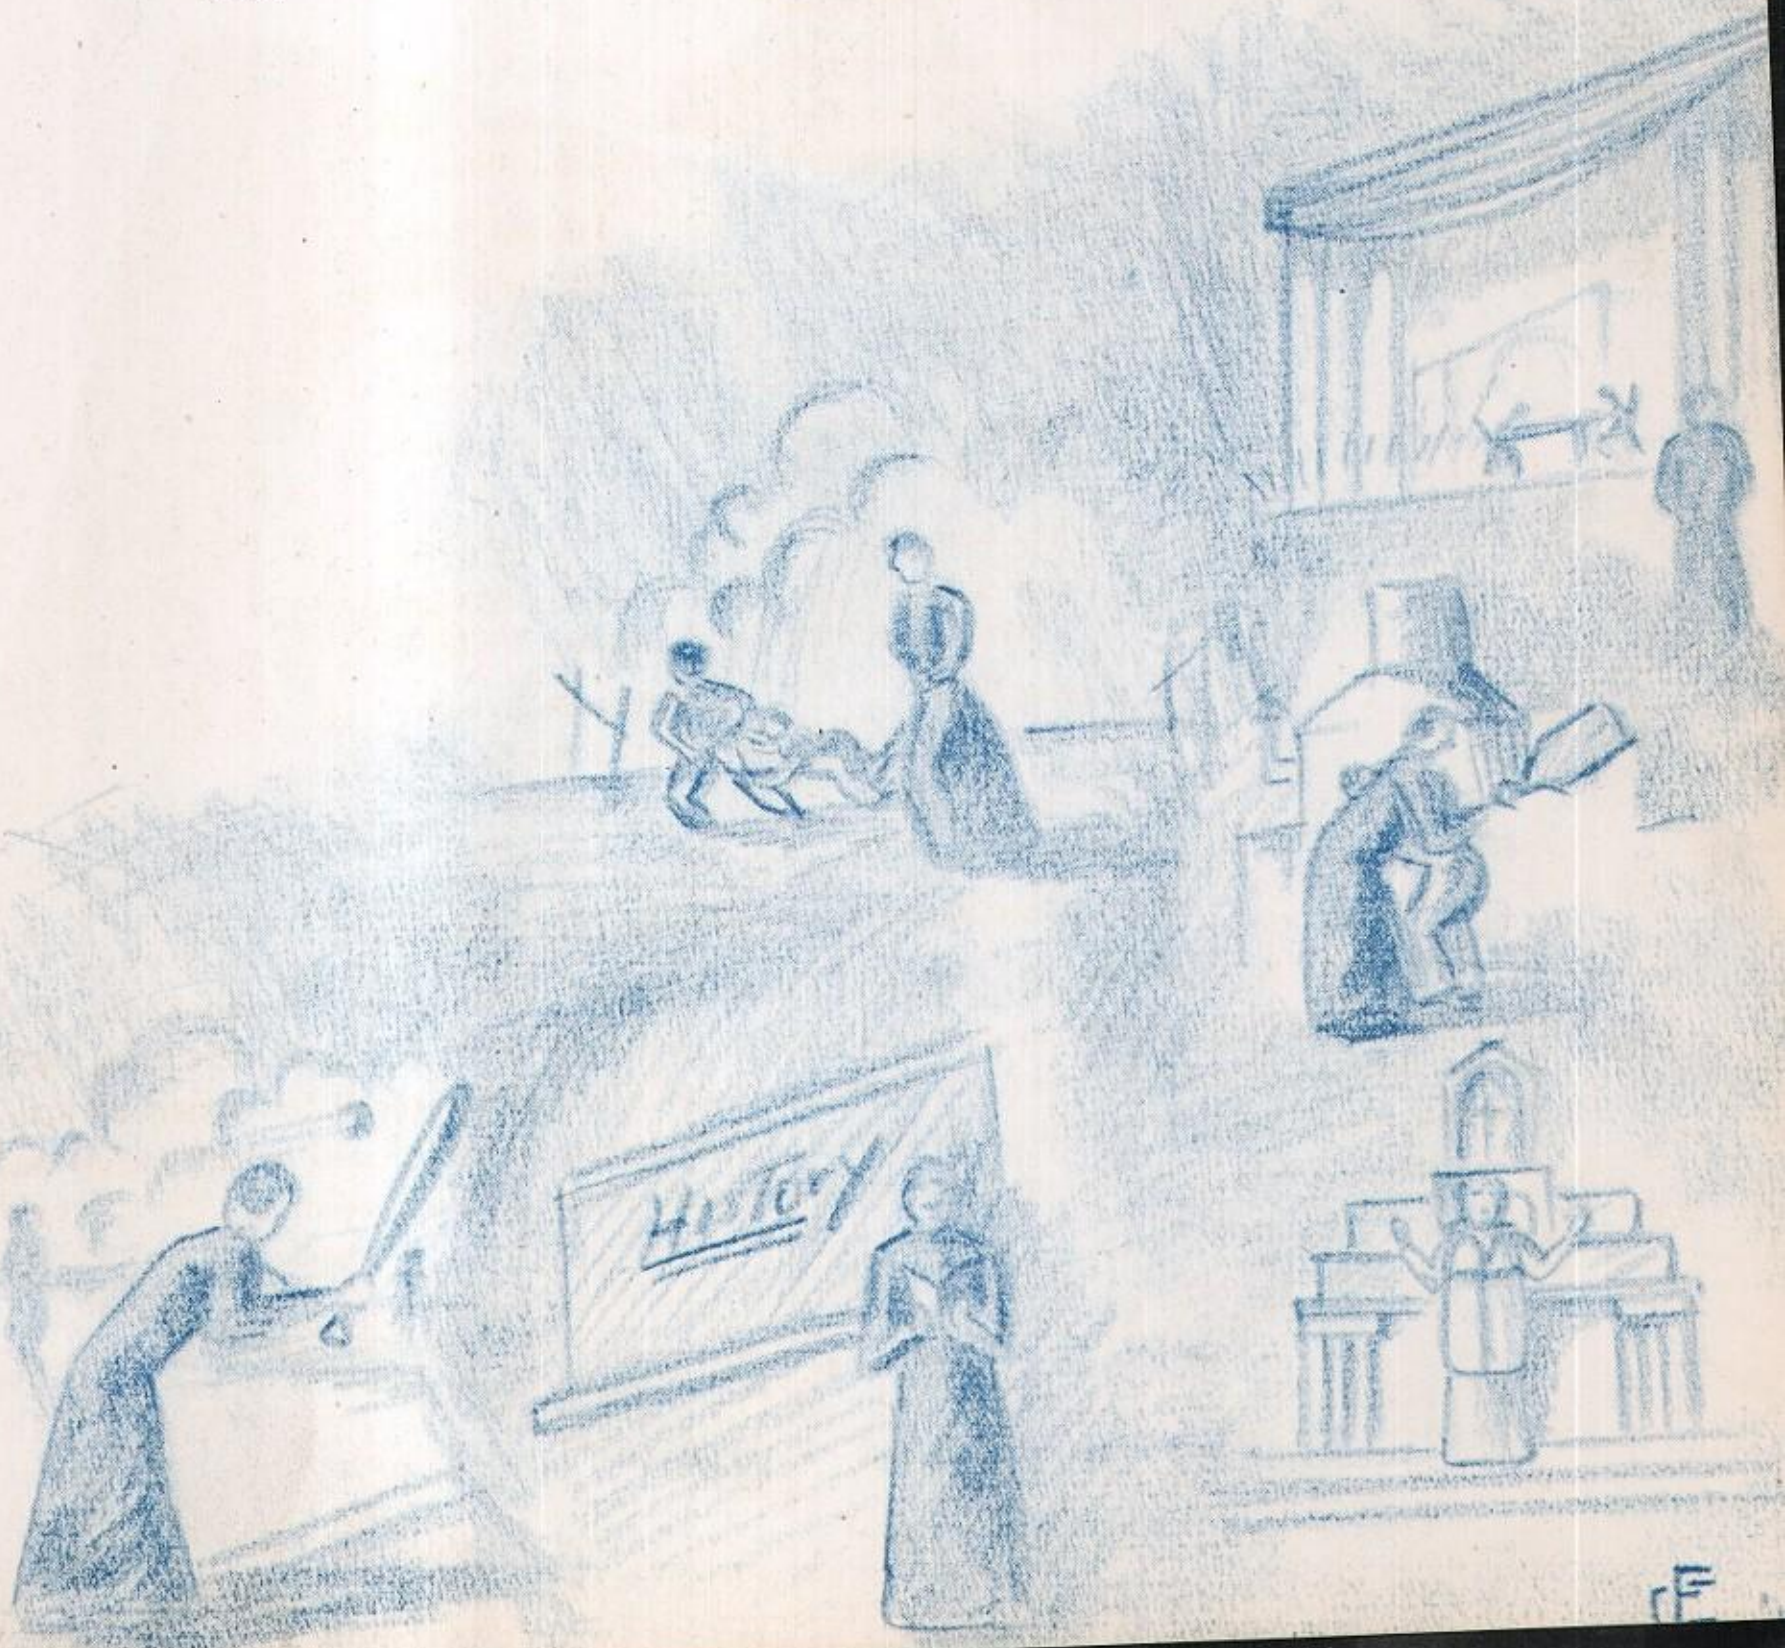
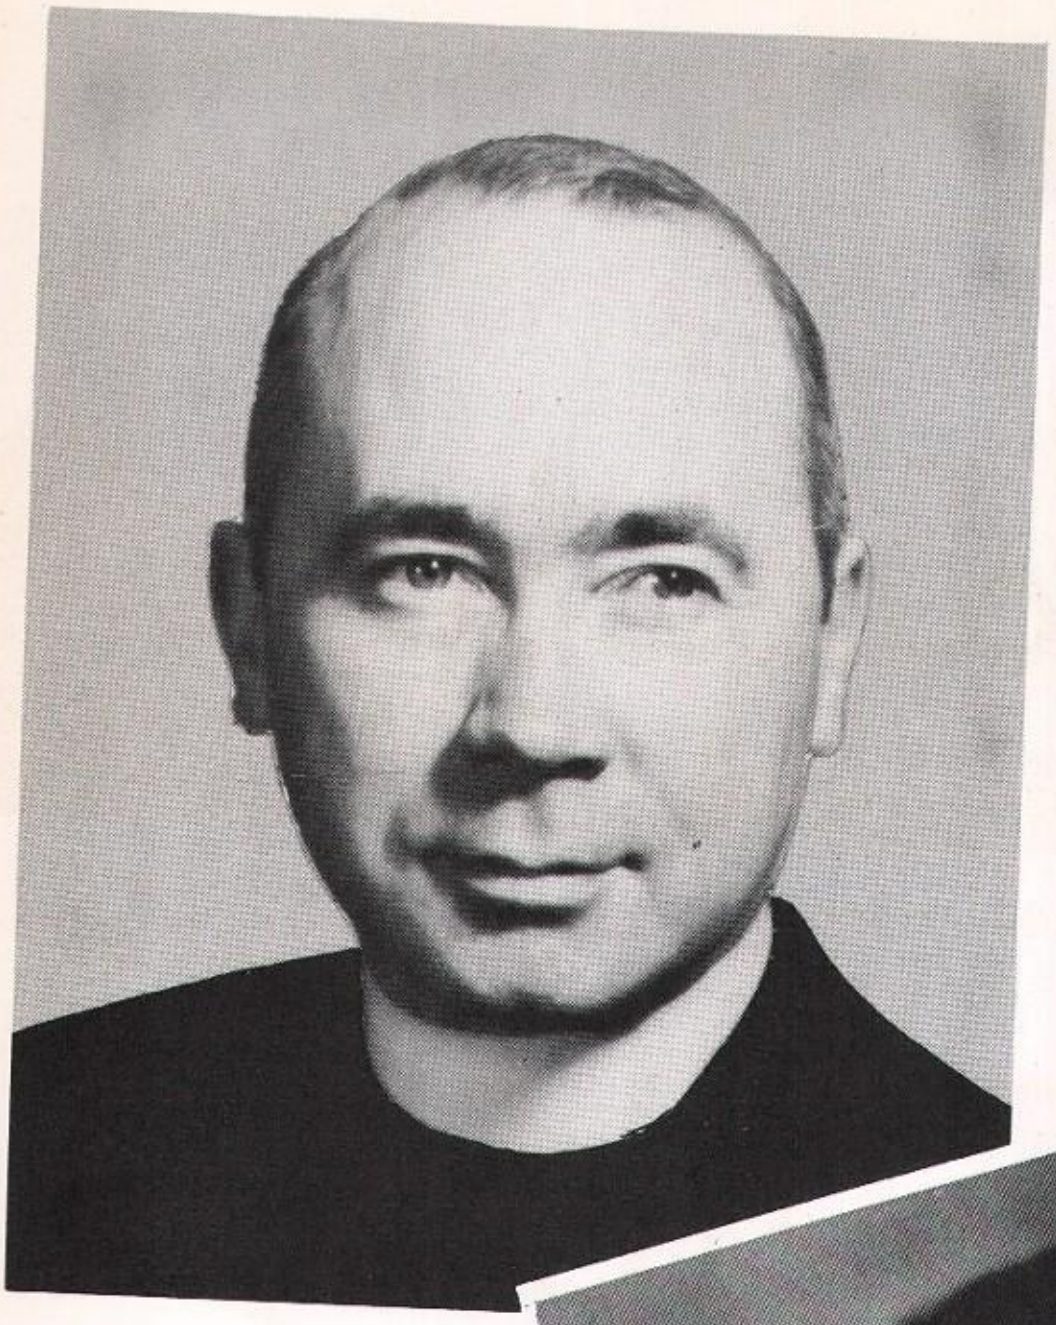
Space unfortunately does not permit individual acknowledgment of the donors of many photographs and much information. To them, however, and to the patient and helpful faculty and office staff as well as to all who made the raffle a success, go our deep appreciation.

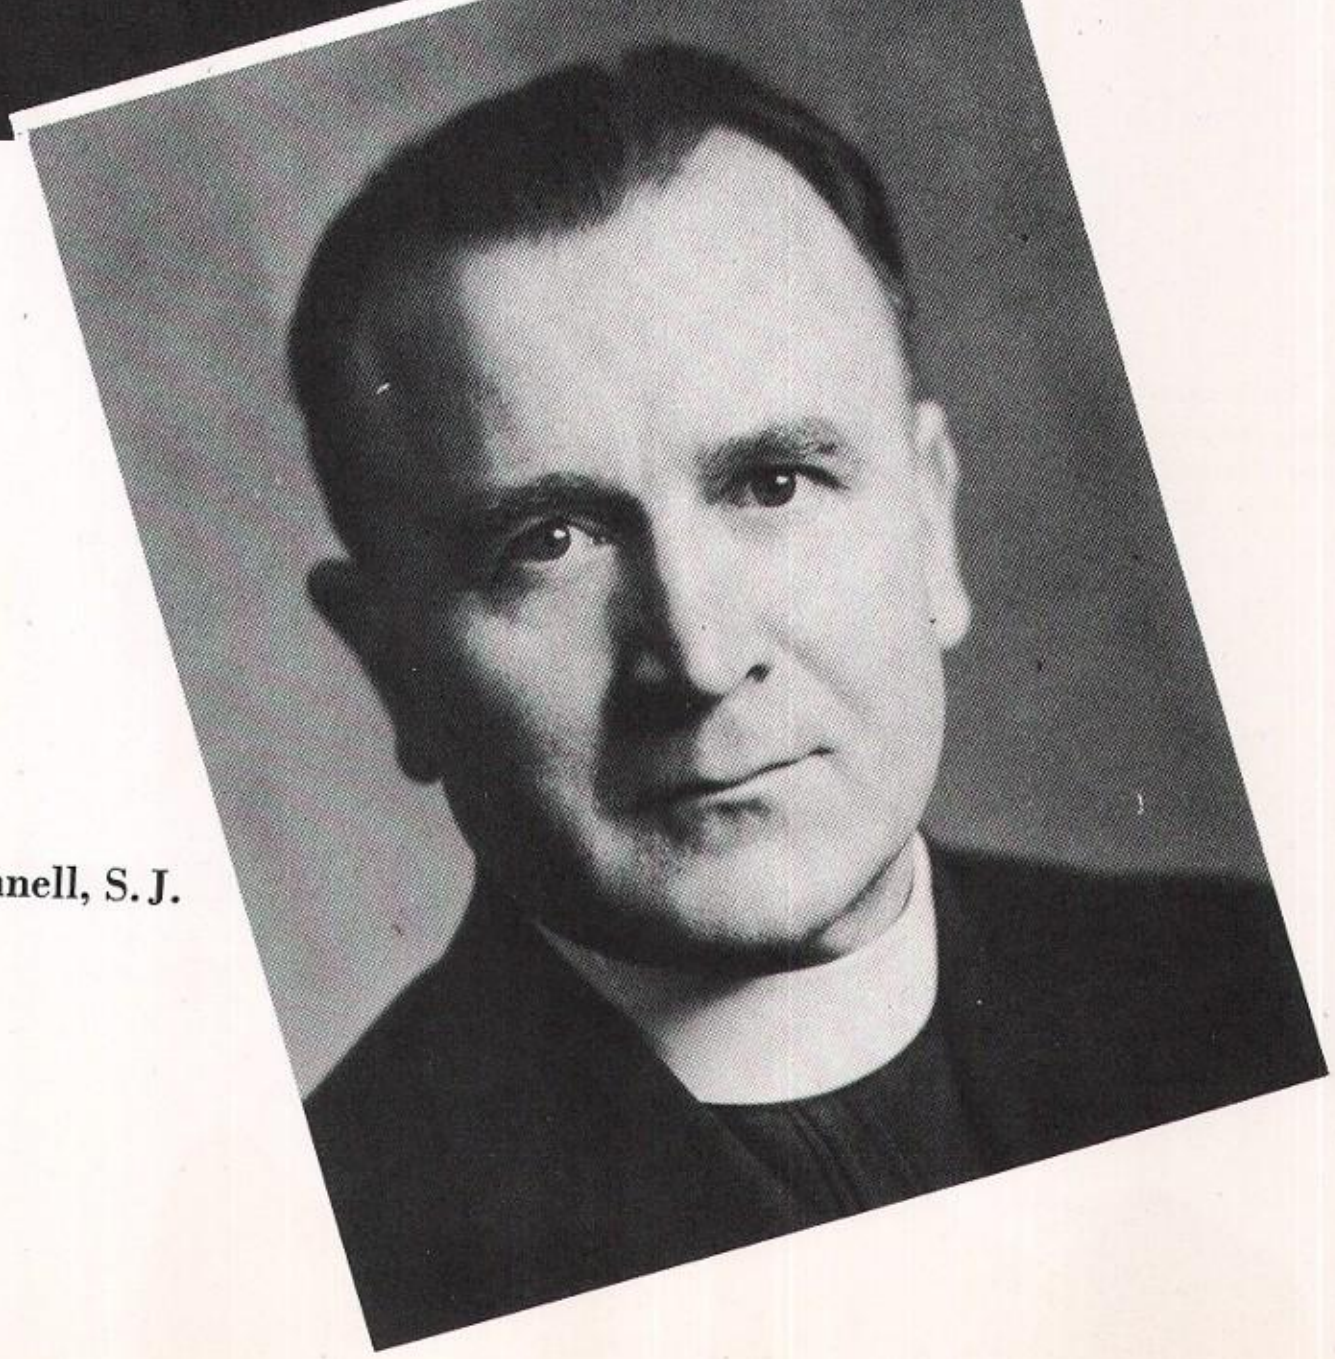
A Dedication

The senior class of '47 wishes to dedicate this diary to their Jesuit teachers who, by their example and guidance, have shown us the path to a successful Catholic life.





Fr. Harold O. Small, S. J.



Fr. Christopher J. McDonnell, S. J.

Here is the faculty who we at Prep have come to know and respect. These are the black-robes who have busily been attempting to inculcate knowledge into our unwilling heads. It is they who have administered sound but seldom appreciated discipline. But more important are their long and successful efforts toward our Catholic education which will benefit us long after the memories of Adelphia have been dimmed by the years.

Fr. Paul L. Weissenberg, S. J.
Prefect of Discipline; Moderator of Letterman's Club.

Fr. Michael Shannon, S. J.
Father Minister at Faculty Residence; Substitute Professor.

Our Diary

Dear Diary:

One hundred and one scared frosh jam Prep's halls . . . Though put at ease spiritually by the traditional Mass of the Holy Spirit, and socially by the first Sodality semi-formal, our confidence is shaken by numerous trips over the "bank" . . . The November retreat is something new to us, and is well received . . . Class elections result in Joe Carlson leading 1A, Dick Foley heading 1B, and Bill Wainwright, 1C . . . Mr. Carlin splits his moderating duties between 1A and 1C as Mr. Agnew looks after 1B . . . Al Flynn becomes prefect of the active frosh Sodality . . . Chas. Bricker begins his "colyum" on the Panther . . . Freshman names in sports are those of Rino Bogni, a varsity letter winner in football; and John Morris, Jim Rogers, and John Halleran, frosh team basketball stars . . . 1A becomes famous as a "sub-cellar pool-hall" and takes honors in intramural basketball . . .Though weakened by a "gas attack", 1B wins junior league softball championship . . . Carlos Ralph Zener III shines in 1A-1C Latin contests . . . Paul Beytebiere places second in junior elocution . . . Dick Wright and Bill Mulligan debate avidly . . . Among other people who influence our little frosh world are B. J. Coles, A. S. S. P. prexy; Al Schuss who coached the Panthers to a high place in cross-state football and basketball; Mr. Carlin, who arranges hikes for the week-ends, and swimming Tuesdays at the Y. W. C. A.; and such timeless characters as Frank Sinatra, "Pistol-Packin' Mamma", and Scavotto . . . Really collegiate now, we leave our frosh year with the final curtain of the Harlequins' "You Can't Take It with You" . . .

No more inferiority complexes . . . We toss the new frosh over the bank with joy . . . This year John Porter is prexy of 2A, with Fr. Hayes as moderator; Dick Foley and Fr. Frank Logan in 2B; 2C: Bernie Miller and Fr. Toner . . . They lead a class of only ninety-six . . . We have another retreat which is even better appreciated . . . The candy vending machine outside 2A proves a gastronomical success but a financial failure . . . Morris and Ron Stauber join Bricker on the Panther staff . . . The school is sharply divided between the fourth term and Governor Dewey . . . Under Coach Harry Bird, we defeat O'Dea in football for the first time in four years . . . Buz Ketcham attains his first stripe . . . The basketball series with O'Dea is cancelled because of mysterious paint on O'Dea steps . . . Second team football is bolstered by Foley, Payne, Beytebiere, McMahon and Miller . . . Foley and Payne fill out the second team diamond . . . In intramurals, 2A is tops in basketball; 2B in softball . . . 2C contributes the most in the Alaska week drive . . . Fred Robinson is top man in the A. S. S. P. . . . Those privileged few who foretaste the junior prom's delights are Carlson, Resner, Ketcham, Halleran, Derrig, Adair, Conner, Cassill, and Santucci . . . Minor trials and tribulations: gas rationing, "Rum and Coca-Cola", Gravel Gertie and a cigarette shortage . . . Foley is to be secretary of the A. S. S. P. next year . . . Believe it or not, we'll be upperclassmen! . . .

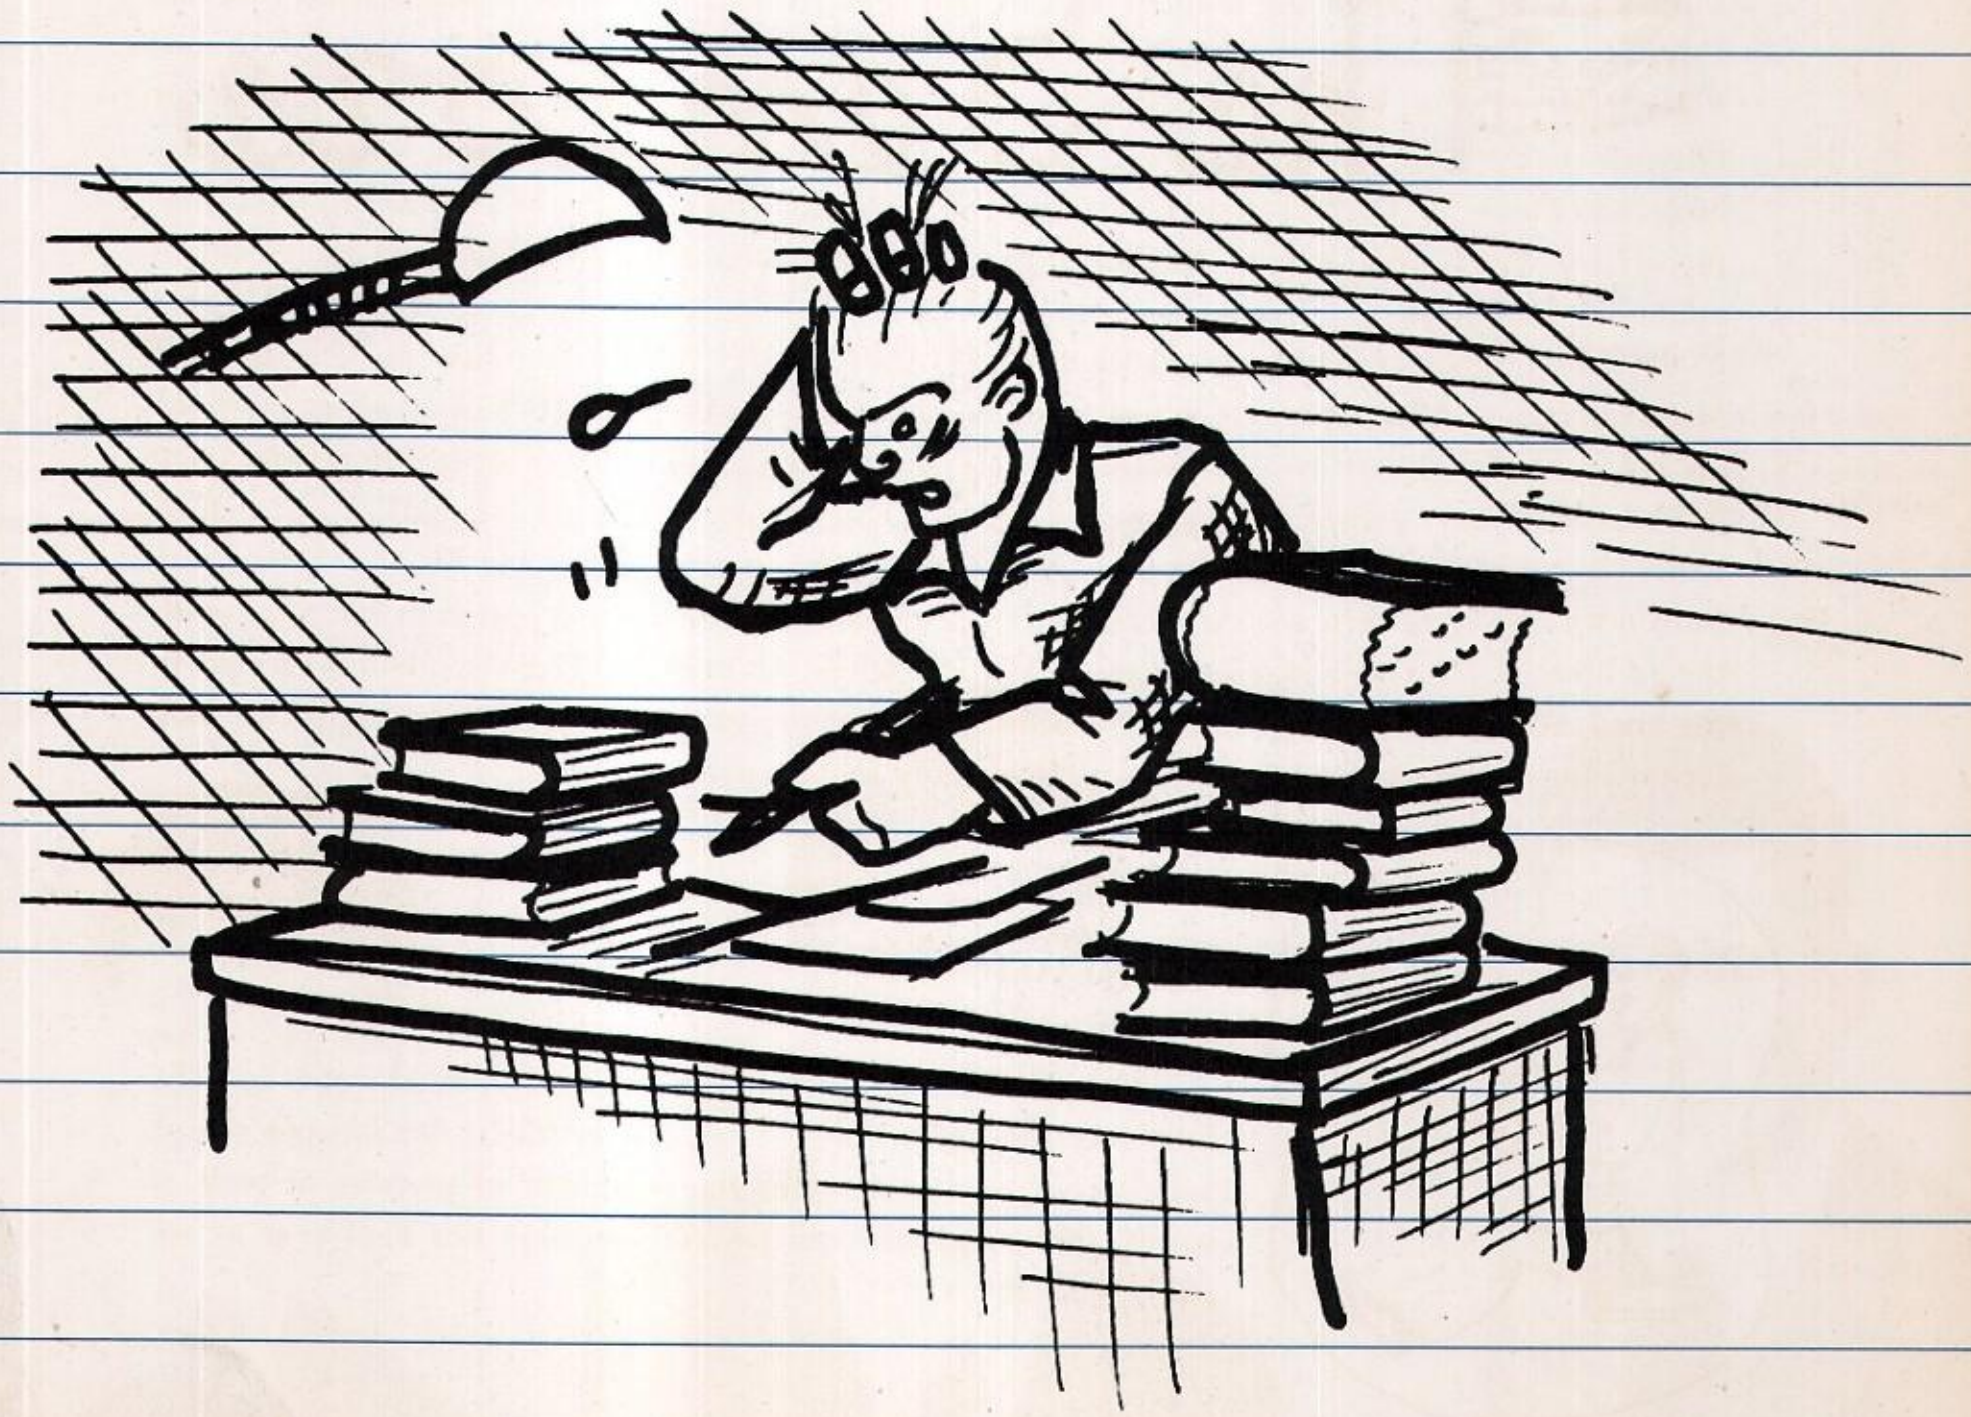
A mere eighty-five of us left, but we're really rolling . . . Three hundred and ninety-four in the whole school now, a record . . . We superior juniors look down on the frosh, yet our leisure time is occupied with yo-yos, Itchy, "hot rods," and "Sioux City Sue" . . . We're led by Carlson in 3A, Jack Moore in 3B, and Fred Veno in 3C . . . Moderators are Mr. Kauffman, Fr. Goudie and Mr. Patterson respectively . . . Halleran, Stauber, Cassill, Broulette, Rose, Flynn, Towey and Buzard staff the Panther under the new editor Bricker . . . New Panther clubbers are Cassill, Stauber, McGinnis, Foley, Haley, Payne, Veno, Berens, Shanahan, and Carlson . . . School improvements are permanent bleachers in the gym, movies in the Chem lab . . . Football letters go to Shanahan, Ketcham, Beytebiere, and Payne . . . Orchids go to Dan Melinkovich, the coach who leads the Panthers to the championship in the N. W. Catholic football league, to third in cross-state football, and to second in cross-state basketball . . . Juniors "tread the boards": Bill Conner as a tough gangster in "What a Night!"; Ron Santucci in the sinister plottings of "La Carota"; "Rastus" Ketcham in "The Revised Masterpiece" . . . Mrs. Perry celebrates her tenth anniversary as Prep's "dietician" . . . Flynn is head prefect of the Sodality; Cassill is treasurer . . . Halleran, Rogers, and Morris are stellar second team casaba material . . . John Pirolo, Payne, Lyons, and Foley make first string baseball . . . Shanahan scores in oratory . . . The publicity club gives "Rod" Mackay some more "big biz" . . . The Prom turns out to be more than an "event"; under the capable hands of the lucky soph of last year, with the addition of Joe Haley and Jim Rogers, it is a highlight of 1946 . . . Ted Shanahan is elected to the head A.S.S.P. position for 1946-1947, with John Halleran as vice-prexy . . . And now, we look forward impatiently to our senior year . . . the lordly senior year! . . .

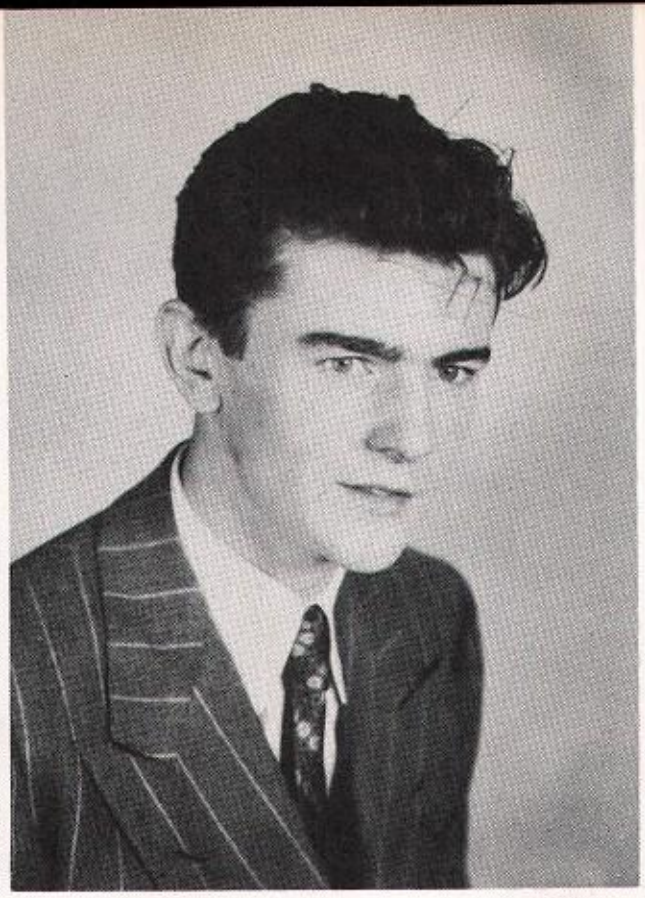
1946-1947

The Chinese say a picture is worth ten thousand words . . . The following pages prove this . . . A year as full as this last one of our high school careers deserves the treatment of pictures as well as words, though neither can perfectly express this final year as we really lived it . . .

Our Classes



JOE CARLSON
4A President



JOHN HALLERAN
4B President

THESE are the seniors of '47. Somehow graduation seems to have slipped up on us, catching us a little unprepared. Each of us is going to miss the school where we have spent four of the most profitable years of our life. Just as on entering Prep as lowly freshmen, we are now preparing to go on in life making use of what we have learned here.

The Seniors

Father, of the rest of the Jesuits are sad like you will be leaving, regretfully Joe

Juniors

JOHN DUSTIN
3A President

Members of the Junior class can well be proud of themselves for their accomplishments of the past year in athletics, in forensics, and in social activities, which contributed so much to school life. Divided into three groups, 3A, 3B, and 3C, they worked as one to make a success of such big affairs as the Junior prom.

Officers were chosen soon after the resumption of classes in the fall. In 3A they voted John Dustin into the top position, with Pat Coles serving as vice-president, and Neil O'Hare, secretary-treasurer. 3B chose as its president Frank Murphy, with Pat Burrington winning out as vice-president, and Dan Sweeney as secretary-treasurer. As the head man in 3C they picked Dick Sullivan, electing Buzz Frasier and Bob Drew vice-president and secretary-treasurer respectively. Serving as moderator for all three of the Junior classes was Mr. Patterson S. J.

The Junior sodality, numbering 45 members in its rolls, chose as its class prefect Jim Kaufer and as class treasurer Dan Read.

According to tradition the Juniors presented their Prom, which was successfully staged on the beautiful and spacious floors of the Palladium.

The class of '48 was well represented in the fields of dramatics and debating, as well as in athletics. Many members of the class captured their varsity letters, and 3A won the intra-mural basketball crown.

Jim Kaufer was elected to the post of A.S.S.P. secretary by the student body, and Dick Douglas was chosen treasurer. Pat Hentschell took over the responsibilities of head prefect of the sodality for the coming year, with Frank Murphy as head treasurer.

THE student body gained new strength and attained a greater degree of self-government than ever before when the revised student council went into action. Long a barely functioning body, these class officers and representatives of school clubs and activities decided to become once again a strong force for the good of the student..

Under Fr. McDonnell, they drew up a constitution in order to regulate the school's various activities in an orderly and business-like manner. They succeeded with unlooked for efficiency which made for better inter-class, inter-club, and faculty-student relationships.

In order to create a fund to take care of unexpected emergencies, the student council took 10% of all profits on school-wide projects and also sponsored a football pool, and a couple of post-game dances in basketball season.

The president was Ted Shanahan, vice-president, John Halleran, and secretary Jim Kauffer. These were officers by fact of being the popularly elected A. S. S. P. leaders of last spring. The treasurer for the organization was elected from nominees chosen by the council itself this fall. He was Dick Douglas.

Student Government

Panther Club

THE royal blue sweaters which seem to be in the wardrobe of the outstanding leaders at Prep, signify that the wearer is a Panther club member. This club it is that encourages school spirit and aids in the many details of game ushering. Its members are the Prep upperclassmen who have distinguished themselves in school activities.

This year, the Panther club was headed by Dick Foley who was succeeded at the second semester by Fred Veno. The faculty member who advised them was Mr. Perri.

An unusual duty of the Panther club last fall was to patrol the grounds with the lettermen. This was due to a temporary deficiency of lettermen's club members. Besides ushering at games and selling tickets the Panthers sponsored the traditional Christmas party as well as a spring dance on May 14. This dance and an election of new officers for 1947-1948 from the junior members of the club, climaxed an eventful year.

THE MEN with the big blue "S's" and white stripes on their sweaters need no introduction to the average Prepster. All of us have encountered them and their perennial paddles at one time or another. But aside from their unpleasant duties as school patrolmen, they have been an active and beneficial Prep institution this past year.

Led by Prexy Buz Ketcham and Jack Payne, vice-president, the club started their activities in September with a raffle which netted $300 for the athletic fund, and which helped to pay traveling expenses for the teams. The lettermen aided the Panther club on a type of lend-lease basis: the Panthers patrolled the grounds with the lettermen last fall, while the lettermen ushered and watched the gates at the larger basketball and football games at the U. of W. Topping things off with a successful spring dance, the proceeds of which went to the Diary and the Prom committee, the letter winners concluded a busy year.

Lettermen's Club

Prom Committee

MAY NINTH at the swank Palladium ball-room, we were guests at one of the most successful Junior Proms in Prep's history. John Halleran reigned as king, with Carol Goodrich his queen. We dined at the Athletic Club or the Olympic beforehand and then danced until twelve to the music of the Chevaliers at the Prom. Afterward, Playland or other parties. This was the one night of the year when Mom and Dad didn't expect us in early; we made the most of it. Scarcely a senior or junior saw home before 5:30.

Under the able chairmanship of Jerry Malone, the Prom was entirely produced by juniors, with Fr. McDonnell as moderator.

A RADICALLY new Seattle Prep Panther greeted us last September when the large four-page newspaper made its 1946 debut. Under editor Chas. Bricker and a talented senior-junior staff, the news and feature writing showed more quality than ever before. With new format and make-up policies, originality became the watchword, and a paper second to no previous one and the first to become a member of the international Quill and Scroll, an honorary highschool journalistic society, was born.

Having taken over the editorial reins at mid-year, juniors Frank Murphy and Jim O'Brien will continue to improve the Panther as co-editors until 1948 together with a junior-sophomore staff. They will be aided by the expert advice and supervision of Mr. Patterson, the Panther's faculty adviser, to whom goes much of the credit for the revamped policies of the Seattle Prep Panther.

Panther Staff

Diary Staff

OUT of the confusion of picture taking, research, lost copy, and last minute changes, we find that a Senior Diary of high calibre has emerged. Here is a record of the fact-paced life of a boys' school in the fall and winter of 1946 and the spring of 1947.

The cover and the pages they enclose speak for themselves. The seniors have worked "like beavers" since January. Here is the result: a Diary which offers eight more pages than that of any other year and a greater variety of articles and pictures to fill them than is usually offered.

With the assistance of Fr. Evoy, moderator, a Diary which we are proud of and which will be paged through with pleasure many times in years to come has been produced.

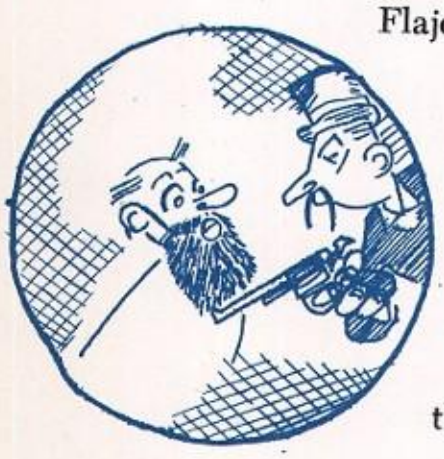
CERTAIN of us Prepsters delight in displaying our dramatic tendencies. Ample opportunity was afforded this year through the Harlequin club, our theatrical organization. The club was led by Bill Conner as president, Chas. Bricker as vice-presilent, and James Cassill as secretary. Fr. Flajole directed and produced the plays as a portion of his moderating chores.



Besides the two major plays presented at the Women's Century Club theater, a number of other skits were presented throughout the year at rallies, Dad's Nights, and mothers' club offairs. Even the K. of C. had Harlequins on their entertainment programs.

The first major play was Dickens' "Christmas Carol," appropriately presented December 16 and 17. Bob Brown's Scrooge was praised by everyone. A highlight of this fantasy was the authentic nineteenth century costuming and the complicated lighting effects necessary for the visions called for in the script.

On April 29 and 30, "Brother Orchid," the story of a reformed gangster made famous by Edward G. Robinson, thrilled and amused a large and appreciative audience. Jim Harmeling, a sophomore newcomer, was perfect as John Sarto. An innovation was the alternating of parts between different players on the two nights.

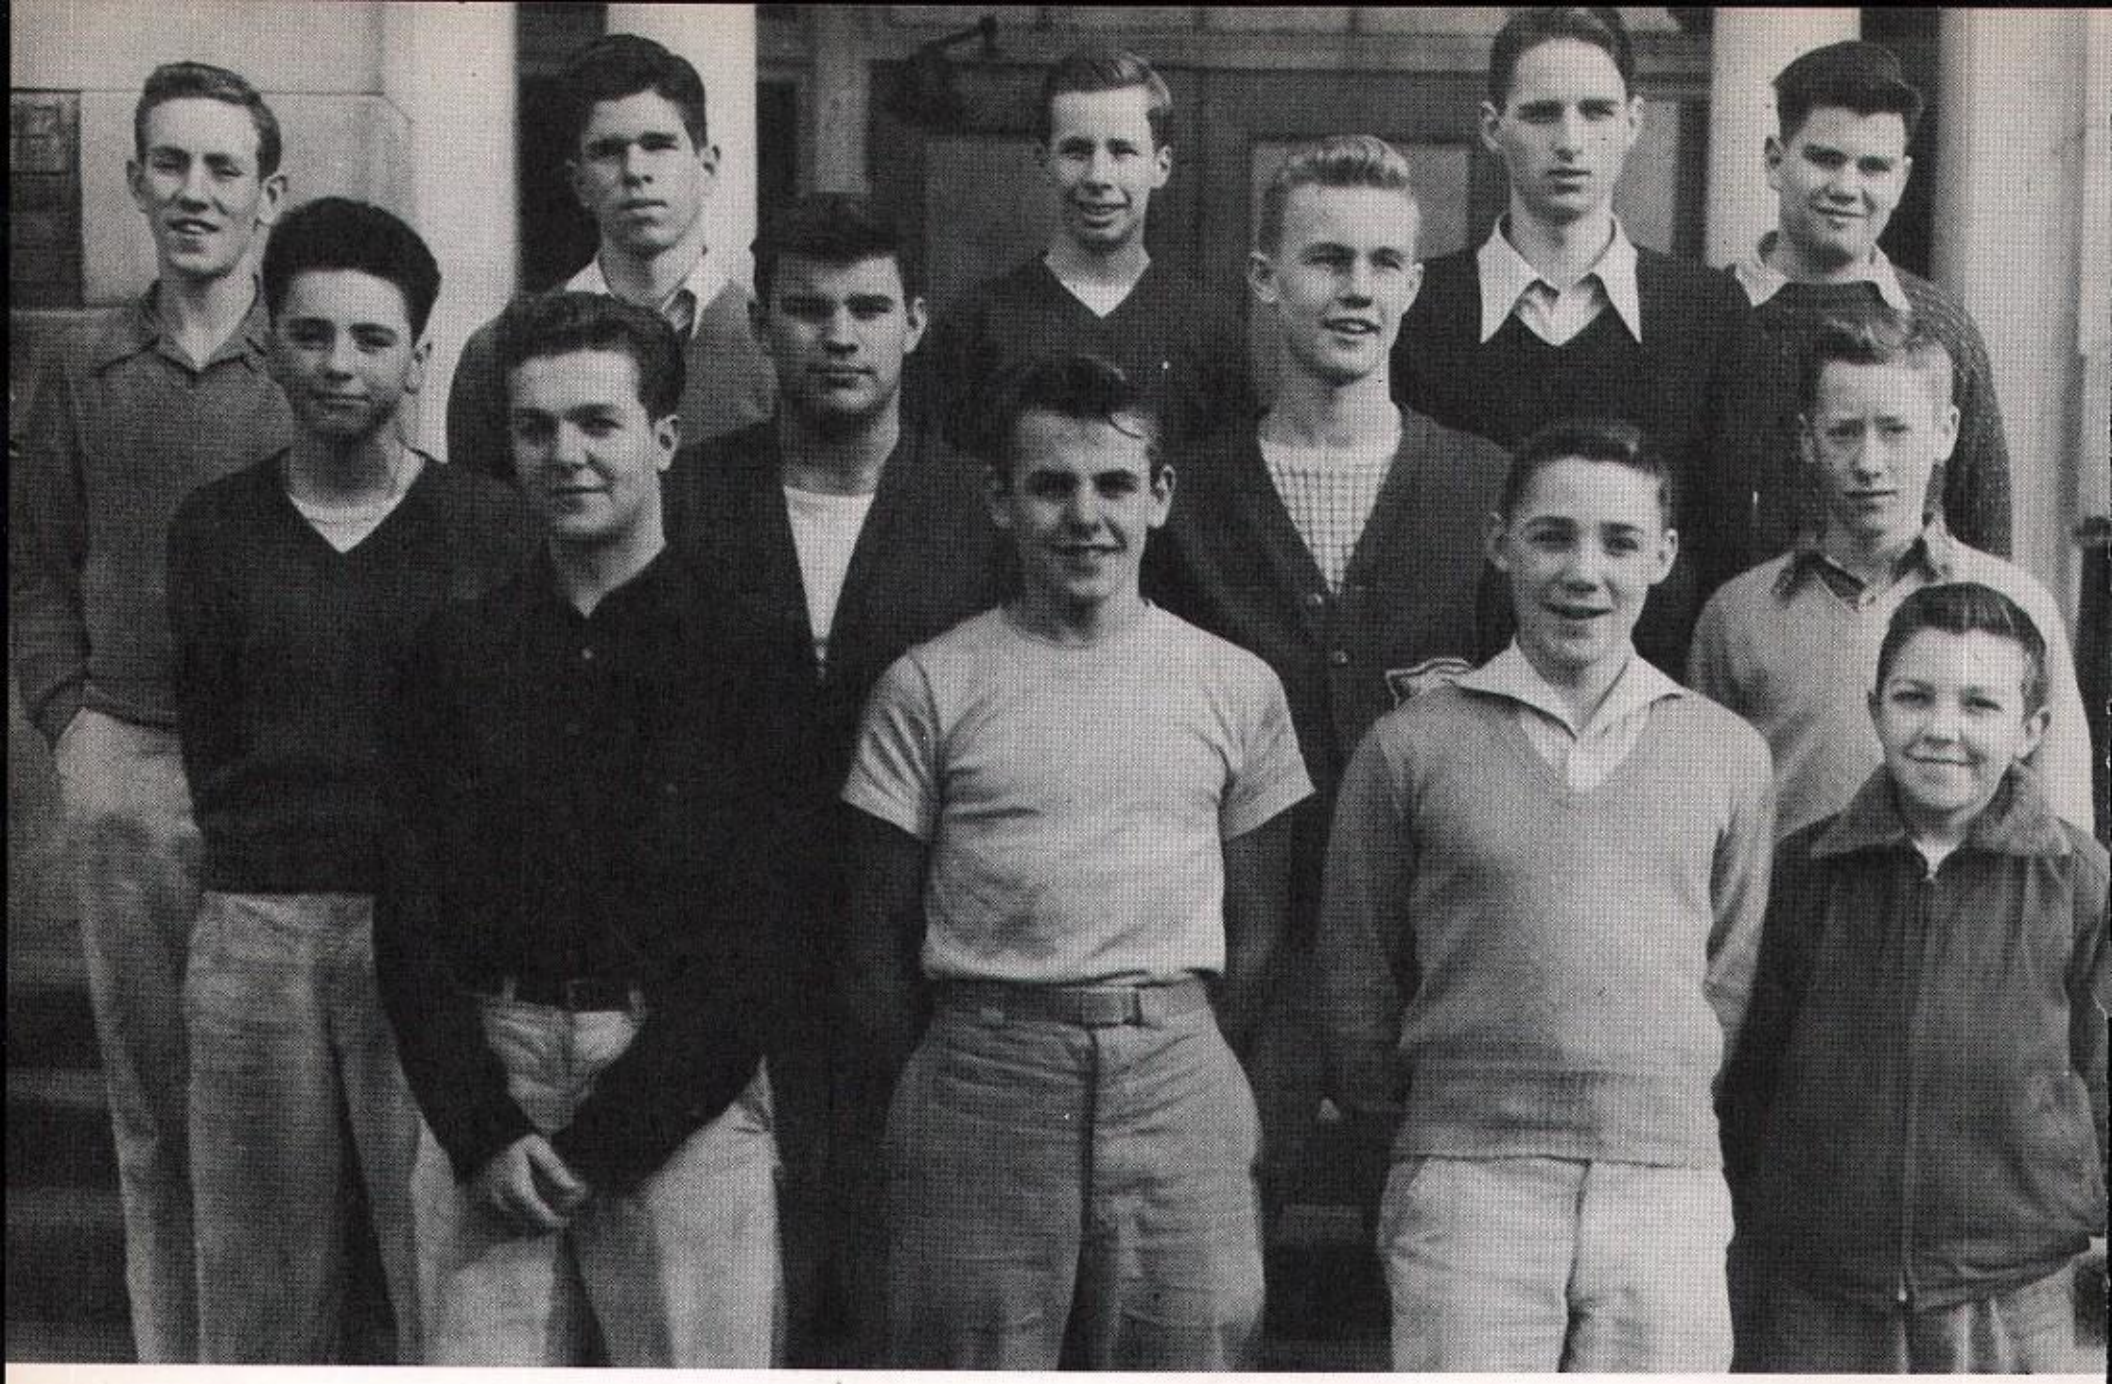
Carolers

Violence rules the underworld as Little John Sarto "speaks" to Dum-Dum in a tense scene from "Brother Orchid." Jim Harmeling collars Jerry Cunz.

The Christmas spirit which pervades Dickens' immortal novel of the Christmas season was brought to the stage with skill by the Harlequins. The complete cast of "A Christmas Carol" appears at the right.



PUBLIC SPEAKING

A DEBATE team rivaling the best in Prep's long and proud public speaking history made the finals this year in nearly all contests that were entered. In the Lincoln-Douglas debate at C. P. S., Alan Enthoven won a first place trophy.

At Seattle College, the first tournament of the year, a team of Jim Broulette, Art Lane and Jim O'Neill was second; Jack Haigh reached the finals in impromptu speaking and Bill Mulligan copped a one year scholarship to the College.

A cross-question style debate at Gonzaga saw two debate teams, Jim O'Neill and Art Lane, and Jim Broulette, John Ghiglione and James Wilson placed third and fourth respectively.

The next C. P. S. tournament gave the debaters their only trophy as mentioned above. Besides this, a team of Dick Wright, Jim Broulette and James Wilson reached the quarter finals in cross-quesion; Phil Wilson and O'Neill did the same in university style. Wilson, Ray Maiser, Wright and O'Neill reached the semi-finals in extemp, and the latter two reached the finals.

In the final tournament, held at W. S. C. we lost in the finals to Omak.

A dance, he first ever held by the Forensic Club, proved a popular innovation. The leaders in this energetic 1946-1947 edition of the debaters were Jiz Broulette, prexy, and Dan Read, secretary. Moderator was Mr. Kaufmann.

Debate

Public Speaking

BESIDES debating talents, we at Prep are skilled in other forms of public speaking. During the year, the traditional senior and junior elocution contests were held. Bob Lucid of 3B was victor in the senior division held last November, and John Anderson of 1D took junior honors. Runners-up were Ted Shanahan for the seniors, and James Robinson for the underclassmen.

In the annual Gold Medal oratorical contest in March, Alan Enthoven came out on top, followed by Art Lane. This qualified Al for the state-wide parochial contest. Unfortunately, a Gonzaga man won this one. "Patrick Henry" was the subject of these Hearst sponsored speeches.

The Diary went to press too soon to be able to announce the winners of the annual Apologetics contest or the Gold Medal extemp contest. But as we know by now, they measured up in every way to the rigid standards set by past speech-makings.

Fr. Flajole offers Mass for Student Sodalists in School Chapel

ONE of the heaviest and most active Sodality schedules in recent years, and one in which the entire student body participated, was successfully completed during the year.

Dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary, it is the purpose of the Sodality to infuse in its members a more perfect knowledge and love of the Church and the Sacraments. This was brought about through a combination of spiritual devotion and temporal activities, under the able sponsorship of Fr. Flajole, S. J., its moderator, and Alan Flynn, head prefect. The more important of these varied activities included dances, a retreat, Catholic Press Week, and several Mass and Communion Days.

Sodality

TO THESE the graduating Seniors fell the bulk of the Sodality activities. A committee composed of Joe Haley, chairman, John Morris, Jack Berens, Louis Criez, and Ted Shanahan supervised the work of the Senior Sodalists, which included sponsoring a Sport-Informal Dance early in the fall, several Comzunion Days, and a Mass and Communion Day for Hall Smith (a member of the class seriously ill). These were all topped off by the big event of the year, the Spring Semi-Formal at the Casa Italiana, which was attended by more than 100 couples.

AMONG the many and varied activities of the Junior Sodalists were sponsoring several projects around the school. These included Alaska Mission Week, Catholic Book Week, and a number of Mass and Communion Days. They also cared for a long-neglected task around the school, that of repairing the pictures of former Prep classes.

JUNIQR SODALITY

ALTHOUGH the Sophomore schedule was not as well-packed as that of the Senior and Junior classes, their work about the school was indispensable. They sponsored Rosaries in the chapel during October and Lent, and under their guidance the Freshmen learned to serve Mass.

THE Freshmen Sodalists, although they spent the first part of the year on probation, soon stepped into the Sodality picture with vigor. Their job was a most important and useful one, although not very glamorous, that of keeping the chapel clean. They also learned to serve Mass, as well as aiding the Sophomores in the duties of the altar.

HIGHLINE.....Sept. 20

Prep inaugurated its season with a journey to Highline to dedicate the latters new Memorial Stadium. Handicapped by inexperience and plagued by fumbles, the Panthers dropped an 18 0 decision to the Highline team. This was a double loss to the Blue and White as the ancient jinx which has haunted the Ketcham's struck again. Buz Ketcham, star tackle, was confiined to the bench inedfinitely with a dislocated elbow, suffered on the first play of the game. High spots in the Panther offense were the accurate long distance kicking of Joe Holmes, and the brilliant line play of Captain Ted Shanahan.

BELLINGHAM.....Sept. 27

In their first home appearance, the Panthers enter tained the tough Bellingham Red Raiders. With all-state fullback Blankenship leading the attack, the Raiders drove to four touchdowns. The Prep eleven, still green, nevertheless determined to make a fight of it. Bob Ultsch tallied the first touchdown as he scooped up a blocked kick and raced forty yards for a score. Late in the fourth quarter, end Jerry Malone gathered in a long pass for the second touchdown, to make the final result BELLINGHAM–25, PREP–12.

BREMERTON.....Oct. 4

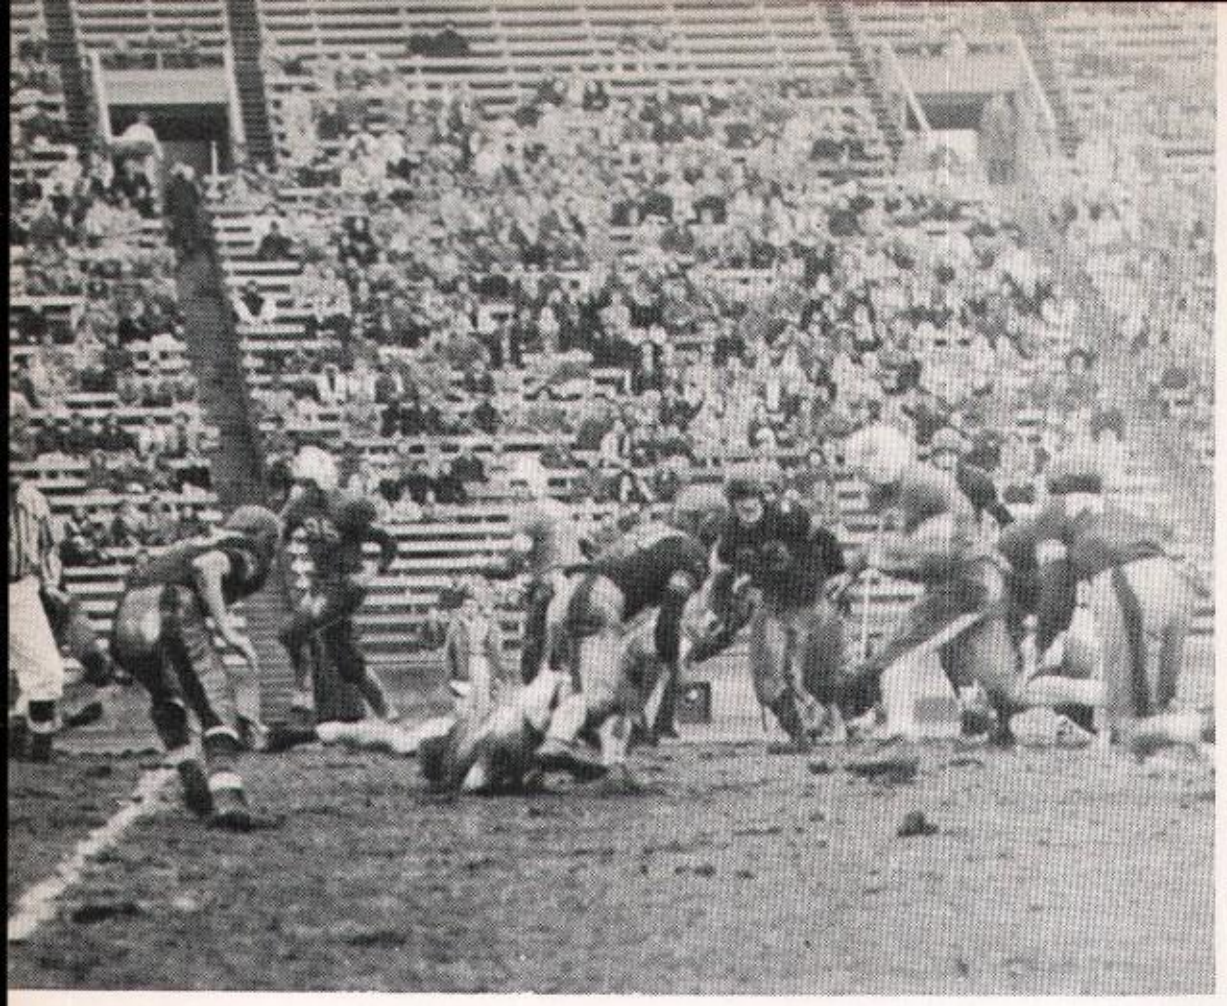
The Bremerton squad played host to the boys from Miller Street. Paced by all-state fullback Gale Wade the Navy Yard team scored first. But the Panthers came back to tie it up, as Jack Payne thrilled the crowd with a sixty yard return of a pilfered lateral. From then on the contest became a scoring spree. When its ground attack failed, Prep took to the air with very effective results. An end around by Bob Hevly and Jim McAteer's quarterback sneak added two touch downs in the second half. Although outscored 38-20, the Blue and White gave a good account of itself.

ST. MARTIN'S.....Oct. 9

In another wild-scoring battle, the Blue and White dropped a hard fought battle to the St. Martin's Rangers, 31-25 at the West Seattle Stadium. The game was a thriller from the first minute, as Dick Douglas broke loose over tackle, on the initial scrimmage play of the contest, galloping forty-five yards for a touchdown. Bolstered by the re-appearance of Buz Ketcham, the Panthers matched St. Martin's point for point on touchdowns by Douglas, Malone, and Sullivan. With two minutes to go, the count was deadlocked at 25-25. Tom Miller, Ranger halfback, intercepted a desperate Prep pass, and returned it for a touchdown. Before the Panther offense could get underway again, the gun sounded ending the game.

EVERETT.....Oct. 18

In a night contest at Everett the Panthers dropped a one sided tilt to the Sea Gulls, 46-7. With a well of material especially in the backfield, league leading Everett scored almost at will. But even with the score reading 40-0 the Prep team was still fighting hard, and late in the last quarter, Sykes Mitchell smashed thirteen yards through center for a touchdown. The Everett first string, which previously had been withdrawn from the game, was again rushed in to stem this new threat. They managed to rack up another Sea Gull touchdown before the end of the struggle. Jow Burns was the outstanding Panther on the field, with his heads up defensive play.



THE O'DEA BATTLE

BELLARMINE.....Nov. 15

This game, which was to decide the Northwest Catholic Championship, was cancelled by Bellarmine, due to adverse weather conditions.

O'DEA.....Nov. 28

The final game of the year, the traditional Thanksgiving clash with the Irish of O'Dea, was a bitterly contested struggle. Played at the University of Washington Stadium, the contest was featured by vicious line play on the part of both teams. The Blue and White knocked many times at the touchdown door throughout the first quarter, but offside penalties repulsed the Panthers. Late in the second quarter, Irish quarterback DeForrest passed to halfback Kinoshita, who took the ball on the Prep five and went over standing up. The halftime score was O'Dea 6, Prep 0. The Panthers came back strong in the second half. McAteer passed to Holmes, who made a beautiful catch of the ball on the goal line, to tie up the score at 6-6. Neither team could score for the rest of the game, though on several occasions, each team threatened.

STADIUM.....Oct. 25

Capitalizing on a number of blocked punts, the Stadium Tigers overpowered the Panthers in a night game at the huge Pacific Lutheran Stadium, 33-0. The Blue and White managed to look good even in defeat, as they threatened the Tiger goal line continuously, only to lose the ball on downs; Shanahan, Douglas, Burns, and Ketcham highlighted the Prep play with their beautiful offensive and defensive game.

LINCOLN.....Oct. 31

Playing their final Cross-State game, the Miller Street boys dropped a 20-6 verdict to the Lincoln Abes in a twilight tilt at the PLC Stadium. The Abes scored all their points early in the contest, but were forced to take the defensive in the face of the Panther's spirited comeback. A rejuvenated Blue and White eleven took the field the second half. With Burns and Douglas spearheading the attack, Prep drove sixty-eight yards for a touchdown. McAteer scored on a quarterback sneak. Back in the lineup after a short illness Joe Holmes sparked the Panther attack with his fine passing and kicking.

BOYS TOWN.....Nov. 9

"The toughest game we played all season." That was the concensus of the Boys' Town team following their tilt with the Blue and White at the University of Washington Stadium. In a benefit game, staged for the Associated Boys' Club of Seattle, the Panthers played host to the highly touted squad representing Father Flanagan's famed Omaha, Nebraska institution. Known throughout the nation for their colorful style of play, the Nebraskans brought with them an undefeated record, and three of the best high school backs ever to cavort on a Seattle gridiron, Len Kroll, one of the fastest prep fullbacks in the country, and high scorer for the team, Jim Mitchell, and Jim Carodine, quarterback, an ace passer and kicker, were the Boys' Town stars. For the first three quarters, it was anybody's ball game, as the plucky Prep team held the high-scoring invaders to a 6-0 score, but in the fourth quarter, Kroll and Company were too much for the Panthers, and scored three touchdowns for a 25-0 victory. Rocky Ursino and Ted Shanahan, guards for the Blue and White, bothered the Boys' Town backs the entire game, blocking kicks, recovering fumbles, and in general gave the visitors an unpleasant afternoon.

Prep 42.....Alumni 36

Our first game of the season was the traditional contest with the alumni. Strengthened by the return of a number of old grads from the service, the alumni put up a good fight, but were unable to cope with sharp-shooting Panthers led by Dick Sullivan and John Halleran.

Prep 50.....Highline 29

Jim Rogers made his debut as a star with his accurate shooting and passing, as we overpowered the Highline Pirates. This made it two in a row for the Panthers, as they reversed an early season football defeat suffered at the hands of the Pirates.

Prep 25.....Lake Washington 26
Prep 41.....Highline 27
Prep 28.....O'Dea 23

During the Christmas Holidays we entered the War Memorial Invitational Tournament at the University Pavillion. The Kangoroos squeezed by us in our first game, a real thriller. But we bounced back to defeat Highline again, and trounced O'Dea, our cross-town rivals. Gordy Davidson and John Halleran gave a hint as to what could be expected from them during the season as they began to build up their point total.

Prep 26.....Lincoln 22
Prep 37.....Lincoln 59

We opened our cross-state play with a close victory over the Lincoln Abes on January 3. Our luck ran out during the return match at Tacoma, as a sharp shooting Lynx jumped to an early lead which they maintained throughout the remainder of the contest.

Prep 29.....Bremerton 48
Prep 40.....Bremerton 57

The powerful Bremerton Wildcats, defending Cross-State Champions, entertained us in a pair of games on their home floor. Led by All-State Louie Soriano, the more experienced Wildcats were too much for the Panthers. In both these games Joe Holmes and Dick Sullivan were the sparkplugs for the Blue and White with their beautiful backboard and floor play.

Prep 48.....Bellarmine 42

Resuming our winning ways, we outfought a scrappy Bellarmine team. Coming up with one of their best teams in years, the Bells fought hard throughout the whole game and nearly upset the Prep five. But the Panthers, sharked by Dick Sullivan's and Jim Rogers' snappy passing game, weathered the storm and came with a close victory and a further claim to the Northwest Catholic Trophy.

Prep 32.....Bothell 34

We ran afoul of hard luck again, as a surprisingly strong Bothell squad defeated us in the closing minutes. Gordy Davidson was high point man for Prep as he put in sixteen points, but the Panthers offense did not display its usual class, and the Wildcats came through to upset us.

Prep 36.....Stadium 57
Prep 51.....Stadium 59

The Tigers were the only team outside of Bremerton able to defeat us twice. Alternating a small, fast team with a big, rangy five, the Tacomans had things pretty much their way during the first contest. But in the second encounter, a hard fighting Blue and White forced Stadium into an overtime period only to lose.

Prep 34.....Everett 33
Prep 42.....Everett 33

John Halleran was the hero of the first game, as he stepped up to the free thrown line, and with five seconds to go, dropped in the winning point. At that time we held the honor of being the first team to defeat the Sea Gulls twice on their home court, and the third team to defeat them in Everett in fifteen years. But we had to go all out to do it. In the second contest we held the lead all the way and were never threatened by the Gulls.

Prep 42.....O'Dea 36
Prep 35.....O'Dea 31

With these two victories we cinched the Nothwest Catholic Championship as well as the Seattle Catholic Title. As always, the Irish put up a plucky fight, but the Blue and White were too much for them. Dick Sullivan and Gordy Davidson with accurate shooting, broke the back of the Irish defense, as they scored from every angle with seemingly impossible shots.

Prep 49.....Bellingham 40
Prep 52.....Bellingham 30

It was smooth sailing as we made it two in a row over the Red Raiders. These victories boosted our season record to thirteen wins against seven setbacks.

Prep 29.....Burlington 27

By the virtue of our two victories over the O'Dea Irish, we were eligible for a berth in the Northwest District playoff to determine three entries in the State Tournament. In a nerve-racking game we edged out the Burlington Wildcats, although we had to go into two overtime periods to do it. John Halleran again appeared in the hero role, as he bucketed a set-up shot soon after the beginning of the second overtime period. Because the first team to score two points in the period wins, this second overtime frame is appropriately termed the "sudden death" period. The game was exciting all the way, the lead changing from one team to the other. Marion Pericin and Tom Knowles with their accurate foul shooting, and Joe Holmes' brilliant play off the backboard highlighted the play of the Blue and White.

Prep 26.....Mt. Baker 27
Prep 51.....Blaine 40
Prep 45.....Snohomish 34
Prep 41.....Lynden 42

We broke even in the Northwest District playoffs with two victories and two defeats. An underrated Mt. Baker team, playing inspired ball, edged us out, coming from behind in the final four minutes to win. In order to continue our tournament play we would have to be victorious in the next three games. We dumped Blaine and Snohomish with Halleran and Davidson going great guns. In a game to decide the third entry in the State Tournament, we met Lynden, and dropped a heart-breaker losing by one point in the final minute. But we gained some consolation from the fact that Davidson was the high scorer of the tournament with a fifty-nine point total, and his twenty points against Blaine was the highest individual perfomance in one game. He and Halleran were both selected for the All-Tournament team.

Thus ended a highly successful season for the Blue and White. A look at the ledgers shows sixteen victories against nine reverses. In addition to this excellent record we garnered third in the Cross-State, fourth in the War Memorial Invitational Tournament, fourth in the Northwest District playoff and the Seattle Catholic Championship.

Baseball

Facing a tough dozen games schedule, the '47 Prep baseball team will rely on last year's holdovers backed up by several newcomers. In his first year as head baseball coach Dan Melinkovitch has nine veterans to rely on. Fr. Joseph Logan, S.J., will assist him in handling the squad.

The pitching will be good with veterans John Lyons, Ron Kokesh, and part-time outfielder Joe Burns. These lettermen will get help from fast improving sophomores, Carl Wells and Mike O'Brien. Bob Graat will handle the backstopping with John Allen in reserve. The infield has Gordy Davidson and Jim Broulette at the initial sack, Jerry Malone and Marion Pericin handle the keystone and Gene LeRoux, John O'Brien and Ron Fischer control the left side of the inner garden.

John Pirolo, brilliant center fielder, anchors the outer defense. The other two posts will depend on the hitting of Joe Burns, Bob Kokesh, Rocky Ursino and Jack Payne.

The club will have good pitching and should get fair hitting especially if the outfield can produce punch. With the hot competition for infield duty the inner defense should be good. With the well known hustle of Melinkovitch coached teams in addition to the steady coaching of Fr. Logan, this team will win its share.
